Definitions of American State Nationals and American State Citizens:

The Connecticut Assembly is a State of the Union. Our State of the Union is a member of the Federation of States by definition. Each State of the Union is thus populated by both American State Nationals and American State Citizens.

- American State Nationals and American State Citizens can both serve their State, both can vote in Public Elections for State and County offices, both inherit their nationality from their State and, but when it comes to the Business Assembly-international and interstate affairs, the State Citizens are the only ones who can vote on these matters and participate in Jural Assembly.

American State National, Member of The Connecticut Assembly: Political Status change by providing proof of recording through either (1) state of state register of Deeds, or (2) recording your documents with The Connecticut Assembly Recorder and Publishing on LRO and/or LRS. Can attend General Assembly meetings, and can vote in elections for offices. You can function as a State National and have no obligation beyond keeping the peace and obeying the Public Law. May hold office and may be a Militia Member.

A State National is:

- not acting as a citizen of any government and owes no obligations to government.
- a completely unincorporated Person, a sovereign and private and is generally immune from prosecution.
- by definition, a civilian and an Internationally Protected Person and is owed The Law of Peace.
- A State National may be elected to Public Office, depending on the role.
- State Nationals are the “people” of each State and populate.
- American State Nationals have unalienable rights and constitutional guarantees. They have the freedom to exercise those rights and guarantees or choose not to.
- They have the responsibility to obey the Public Law, keep the peace and do no harm to another or their property, nor deprive them of their property.

Assembly State Citizen:

Statehood with the Assembly, Jury Pool member and may hold office, Militia Member. Duty to Actively Serve within the Assembly-State and County and vote on International Business.

American State Citizen – General Assembly, International Assembly, Militia, Jural Assembly-Jury, Offices

- State Citizens are State Nationals who undertake the obligations of Self-Governance on behalf of the State of the Union where they live.
- Can occupy basic Offices of the State Government.
- If deputized or elected to office, State Nationals assume State Citizenship for the duration of their service.
- State Citizens occupy State and County Public Offices, acting as State Justices, local Justices of the Peace, Sheriffs, Peacekeeping Deputies. Coroners, Records, and other Public Offices, either paid or unpaid.
- A State Citizen cannot adopt any other form of citizenship while serving as a State Citizen.
- All State Assembly officers and elected delegates of the State Assemblies are State Citizens.
- State Citizens are the “People” of their State and the Parties who enforce the Constitutions directly and indirectly through their State’s membership in the Federation of States known as The United States of America and the Union known as The United States.
